

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT KAZAKHSTAN

Implementing Technologies for a Sustainable Future

12 & 13 September 2006
Astana, Kazakhstan

Venue:
Intercontinental Astana
113 Abaya Avenue
Astana, 473000
Kazakhstan
Tel: 007-3172-391000
Fax: 007-3172-391010
Email: hotel@interconti-astana.kz
Internet: www.intercontinental.com

E n e r g y W i s e
Workshops for the Oil & Gas Sector

Supported by:

Schlumberger

Workshop Programme 12 September 2006

Opening Session: Inter- Relationships between Sustainable Development and Oil & Gas Projects

8.00 -9.00 Coffee & Registration

9.00-12.30 Opening
Mr. Gerard Kreeft, Managing Director, EnergyWise

A Subcontracting Industry contributing to a sustainable development
Mr. Nils Andreas Masvie, Regional Director,
DNV Energy Eurasia

Roadmap for Sustainable Development
Mr. Assatov Amangeldy Bolataevich, Deputy Director,
Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment Protection

Coffee Break

Session II: Signposting Technologies for a Sustainable Future; What to do about Sulphur?

14.00-17.00 H₂S Gas Separation: The Spretx Pilot Project
Mr. François Lallemant, Research & Development Project
Manager for the Gas Solutions, Total

Amine Gas Separation: a Technology for H₂S Separation
Mr. Jean Paul Cousin, Amine Business Development Manager,
Prosernat

Signposting Sulphur Technologies for a Sustainable Future
Ms. Sholpan Khaidargaliyeva, Director of Technical Development and State Assets, Ministry of Energy and Mineral Recourses

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch

Sustainable Development Kazakhstan

Implementing Technologies for a Sustainable Future

Applying Shell's Experience of Producing and managing Sulphur Production in Canada to Kazakhstan

Mr. Steve Moore, Operated and Jointly-Operated Ventures Manager, Shell Kazakhstan

Sulphur storage: methodologies analyzed by ENI group for Kashagan project

Mr. Agostino Mazzoni, Senior Professional Process Plant Eni E&P Division

Coffee Break

An Assessment of Sour-Gas Management by Injection

Dr. Ahmed Abou-Sayed, Founder, President & CEO, Advantek International

An Overview of the Sulphur Market in Kazakhstan

Mr. Diyas Myrzkozha, National Innovation Fund (NIF)

17.00 – 18.30 Reception sponsored by:

-end of day one-

Workshop Programme 13 September 2006

Session III: Signposting Technologies for a Sustainable Future; What to do about Associated Gas?

9.00 -14.00

Defining and Limiting Risk within the Context of Project Planning
Mr. Tor Torsøy, Vice President, Asset Support Team, International & Production, Statoil

An Overview of Associated Gas
Mr. Kuanysh Sarsekeev, Gas Industry Department, Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources

Coffee Break

How Reservoir Analysis can Add Value to your Associated Gas Problem
Mr. Pete Richter, Vice President Data & Consulting Services Schlumberger

Shell's Experience in Nigeria of Developing a Large Scale Associated Gas Gathering System
Mr. Neil Carmichael, New Business Development Manager, Shell

Closing Panel:

Mr. Udsen
Mr. Mazzoni
Mr. Rettedal
Mr. Weidlein
Mr. Sarsekeev

14.00 Lunch sponsored by:

-End of workshop-
